Job Lot for Sarah Ramey -Meeting Ended.

RACE TRACK, MORRIS PARK, June 14.-The Morris Park meeting ended with the sixth race to-day. It has been re-plete with brilliant racing notwithstanding that the sport during the past few days has been rather tame.

To-morrow the curtain rises again at Sheepshead, where it is expected that a great two weeks' racing will be held. To-day's card was an improvement over those of the past few days, but it blew from the northeast and at times was accompanied by a fine drizzle.

Miles Standish was beaten off. The second event was maiden affair at seven furlongs. Sunbeam colt, the favorite, won with something to spare ser was badly away and finished a poor third. He was heavily backed by his plunging owner, "Pittsburg Phil." Dobbins was the third favorite to win. He was well up throughout, drawing away near the end, and winning in a canter from Melody, who was the out-sider of the Morris pair. Miss Lilly was third.

WINNERS AT GUTTENBURG.

Clement Made on Easy Capture of the Opening Event.

GUTTENBURG RACE TRACK, June 16.-A cold northeast wind swept over the track here to-day and made things very uncomfortable. The weather was cloudy and threatening and had the effect of keeping a large number of peo-ple away from the races.

The glass partitions in the grand stand were closed, and many of those present remained in the inclosed portion. The card, while it was light, had sufficient quality in it to warrant good ficient quality in it to warrant good racing.

The track was in good condition.

An even dozen maldens accepted the issue in the opening race at four and a half furiongs. Leonardo was installed a hot favorite, but the Lillie R. geiding carried a ton of money.

They were delayed at the post for some time, but they finally were sent away to a straggling start, with Sue B. in front.

The Pet filly immediately went out to force the pace, holding the lead to the last furiong. Clement then came on and won easily, half a length before the Lillie R. gelding. The Pet filly was third.

The racing was exceedingly tame at dorr's Park yesterday. The weather was warm enough to take the am-bition out of the most energetic individual, and when one adds to this state of affairs a poor programme, it was no conder that the crowd yawned and ooked bored during the afternoon. The only relief experienced was when Sam Weller won the fifth race. On form his horse did not look to have a chance o win, but win he did, nevertheless. It was purely a case of Taral, Donohu on Roche, had the race safe in hand, out when Taral came at him with that characteristic rush of his, Donohue won by a head. NEW BEDFORD, Mass., June 16 .-There was less of a crowd at the Court-House this morning at the resumption of the Borden trial than there has been at any time since the beginning of the trial, although the air is delightfully cool inside and fans have been retired. Among the early visitors was Miss Emma Borden, who is, it is understood, to be called by the defense although she was down as a Government witness.

Miss Lizze told ex-Gov. Robinson as he greeted her this morning that she had passed a very restful night, and the intimation came with a cheering smile that she would feel better by and by. It was decided this morning not to admit the evidence of the Frenchman,
